1· Palmer S-6 (1940-1941) 1945 AL1 Southeast Asia AL1

241

[343]

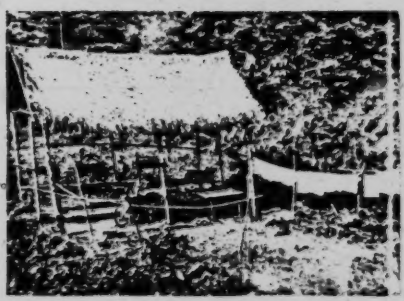

FIG. 30 (upper left)—Batak benzoin collector beside a benzoin tree planted in an old lading. Residency of Tapanoeli, Sumatra. (Courtesy of the Department of Economic Affairs.)

FIG. 31 (upper right)—Peasant-owned rubber garden. Residency of Tapanoeli, Sumatra.

FIG. 32 (center left)—Houses abandoned by shifting cultivators in an exhausted coffee garden. Residency of Palembang, Sumatra. (Courtesy of the Department of Economic Affairs.)

FIG. 33 (center right)—Rubber mangles and sheets of rubber drying in a peasant-owned rubber garden. Residency of Djambi, Sumatra.

FIG. 34 (lower left)—Teak poles lining the road through a tobacco plantation. Between Medan and Arnhemia, Residency of the East Coast of Sumatra.

FIG. 35 (lower right)—Teak, just partially cut down to prepare for a tobacco crop. Between Medan and Arnhemia.

[p 4]